

Get Entertainment Bridge Fund - Supporting Business Program Ready

What is the Entertainment Bridge Fund?

To meet the existing and future COVID-19 related needs for DC's businesses, the District is strategically investing in The Bridge Fund to sustain the hospitality, entertainment, and retail industries and mitigate the ongoing impact of COVID-19 on workers and businesses. The Entertainment Bridge Fund aims to provide $29.5 million in financial relief to the entertainment industry that has experienced significant economic distress since the beginning of the public health emergency. The fund is comprised of two programs: (1) Venue Program that will support DC's entertainment venues, and (2) Supporting Business Program that will support businesses that provide services that heavily rely on large gatherings related to entertainment, events, trade shows, and/or tourism and has been indirectly impacted by restrictions mandated due to the COVID-19 public health emergency. This document describes requirements for the Supporting Businesses program.
